EU TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE – VACANCY

National Expert: Database Developer & Trainer

Particip, in partnership with Helvetas Bhutan, is seeking a National Expert - Database Developer and Trainer for an EU-funded project Strengthening Local Governance, Decentralisation & Gender Mainstreaming (Bhutan).

Requirements:

- Master's degree in ICT or related field.
- 10+ years in database systems design & development, incl. in developing countries.
- Experience delivering structured training.
- 5+ years' experience in SAARC region.
- Excellent English (C2).
- Proven experience with Ruby and Laravel.
- Strong communication and facilitation skills.

Role:

- Build and enhance database modules (Ruby & Laravel).
- Test and refine system functionalities.
- Develop training materials and user manuals.
- Deliver training & ToT sessions for central and local government staff.
- Contribute to finalising system redesigns.

Duration: 30 intermittent working days (Jan–Jun 2026).

Duty Station: Thimphu

Apply by 18 December 2025: Send CV to Pema.Yeshey@particip.com